

Bridging to Ambassadors Guide

Use this guide to talk to your girls about bridging and to get them looking forward to their next step in Girl Scouting. Below you'll find the bridging requirements for bridging to the Girl Scout Ambassador grade level.

Soar to Girl Scout Ambassador!

Girl Scout Ambassador is the highest level a girl can attain in Girl Scouts. As a Girl Scout Senior, you began exploring the wider world. When you become an Ambassador, you'll be ready to soar!

Earning the Bridging Award

Are you ready to soar to Girl Scout Ambassador? Complete the two bridging steps to earn your Bridge to Girl Scout Ambassador Award. Complete one in each step to complete these requirements:

1

Pass It On!

Whether you started as a Girl Scout Daisy or joined as a Girl Scout Senior, you've learned a lot to get here! It's time to inspire others with what you know:

- Inspire Cadettes by giving them a glimpse of life as a Girl Scout Senior.
 - ◆ Invite them on a camp-out, overnight trip or other fun event and talk about your experiences.
- Take something you've learned in Girl Scouts and share it with others.
 - ◆ Did you travel on a Destination? Hold a slide show for Girl Scout Cadettes? Did you complete a Take Action project through one of the journeys?

2

Look Ahead!

Explore what it's like to be a Girl Scout Ambassador. What's the best way to do that? Connect with girls who are already there! Here are ideas for making your get-together fun and inspiring:

- Invite Girl Scout Ambassadors to a roundtable.
 - ◆ Ask your Ambassador sisters about their achievements and challenges. Get their tips on how to make the most of your Ambassador experience.
- Find Ambassadors online by starting a Facebook, Google or Yahoo group.
 - ◆ How did others choose their Gold Award projects? How did they connect with mentors? What outdoor adventures/trips did they go?
- How does Girl Scouting in the United States and the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts effect change around the world.
 - ◆ Look into Girl Scout Destinations, travel to the World Centers, WAGGGS conferences and other opportunities and forums open to Ambassadors.
- Join a council event, camping trip, overnight or Take Action project that involves Ambassadors.
 - ◆ See what you can learn about expanding your current interests as you move into your next step in Girl Scouting.

Plan a Ceremony

Bridging is an important transition in a Girl Scout's life. It's a defining moment when a girl becomes aware of her achievements and is ready for new adventures and responsibilities. Celebrating this change should be fun, personalized and memorable for everyone involved. And most of all, it should be designed by the girls in true partnership with adults. Bridging ceremonies usually take place at the beginning or end of the Girl Scout year and can have three parts:

- Opening: Guests are welcomed and the tone is set.
- Main Section: The ceremony is explained and the girls celebrate moving from one level to the next.
- Closing: Girls can participate in Friendship Circles and thank their guests.

Each of the ceremony's parts offers plenty of room for the girls' creativity and individuality. And whether the ceremony includes an actual bridge or a symbolic one, or if it includes props like candles, flowers or flags, the ceremony should always focus on paying tribute to the girls as they move forward.
