

A Recipe for a Girl Scout Troop

- Girl Scouts come in all colors, from all races around the world. Every Girl Scout is a sister, no matter where she is from, no matter the language she speaks no matter the color of her skin. Girl scouts are the colors of the rainbow. (put in colorful candies)
- We have a Promise and a Law. On our honor, we will try to do our best to be fair and square. (add square shaped cereal)
- Some of us are tall and some of us are small. When we get together, size does not matter at all. (add pretzel thins or mini marshmallows)
- Sometimes we are nutty, and we love to joke and play. We'd love to put a Girl Scout smile into everybody's day. (add nuts)
- When we get together, we seem to make circles. We may sit in circles, play circle games, make a Friendship Circle. You could say that we are very well-rounded. (add circle shaped cereal)
- When we are busy planning a project or doing a craft, we pop around until we are done. (add popcorn)
- Girl scouts respect all living things. The earth is our home, and we want to keep it safe for everyone. (add animal shaped crackers)
- Girl Scouts are “chips off the old block”, Girl Scouting began in 1912. Since then, we all have been part of an old tradition, and are proud to be part of the future. (add chocolate chips)
- We get a kick out of wearing our uniforms, learning new things, helping others, and being together with our friends. (add puffed cereal or puffed corn)
- Young Girl Scouts are sweet and new. While the older Girl Scouts will have much more experience than you. (add grapes & raisins)

And there you have our Recipe for a Girl Scout Troop.
And now we'd like to share it with all of you!
