

New Leader Onboarding Service Unit Support

First 15 Days	First 30 Days	First 60 Days	Ongoing
Check for new leaders in your service unit Looker report Service Unit Roster: New in the Last Two Weeks. Staff will also notify the service unit when a new troop is started.	Connect with new leader inviting them to the next service unit meeting. Provide new leaders with service unit contact information.	Service Unit New Leader Welcome meeting. This would be great to offer 30 minutes before upcoming service unit meetings.	Call new leader if not attending service unit meetings. Check in on them.
		Optional: Provide a mentor for new leaders in your service unit. * reference New Leader Mentor Guide for resources
	Add new leaders to service unit communication, such as, email list, Facebook group, Service Unit Rally, Remind etc.	Help support a family meeting or upcoming troop meeting.	Invite troop volunteers and their troops personally to upcoming service unit events.
		Host an investiture ceremony for new leaders.

Service Unit Welcome Meeting—Discussion Topics

- Contact Information
- SU Meetings and Upcoming Events
- Connect to SU Social Media platforms & communication methods
- Debrief Troop Start Up Training that troop leaders watch on gsLearn
- Frequently Q & A
- Volunteer Mentor Assigned by either SU or staff (as applicable)
- Promote Volunteer Resources/Learning Opportunities hosted by service unit and/or GSWO
- Product Program